Where every moment
is a memory of a Lifetime
Alila Diwa Goa

"There are journeys that take a lifetime to reach a destination and then there are destinations that take you through a journey of a lifetime".

Goa, Your Dream Destination

Goa, The Golden Aisle

A Portuguese colony until 1961, Goa is a unique emerald green island on India's west coast with miles of endless beaches interspersed with quaint villages and charming towns. It is India's most popular resort destination and a delight for all types of travellers.

The swaying palms, white sands and sparkling beaches have won Goa the loyalty of travellers from all parts of the world. It is loved for its cashew wine - Feni, water-sports, nightlife, monuments like forts, temples and churches, carefree culture and romantic ambience. A leading holiday destination since colonial times, it continues to please guests of all age groups and is now considered to be one of the most romantic places to tie the knot.

With some of the most beautiful venues and locations, a wedding in Goa can be customized to your dreams. It can be a casual, fun-filled affair or a solemn, traditional event. Goa offers the ideal setting for couples who like the idea of a small wedding in a laid back and relaxed ambience, as well as those who want to host a lavish one with the traditional fanfare.
